Soft skills. Hard skills. Roles. Communication

Through his creativity, experience and qualifications, Werner is able to add innovative, holistic value with “soft” people-focused, creative competencies complemented by “hard” process-focused skills, representing a good mix of strategic/operational and leadership/managerial. Soft skills for hard results?

He has played leadership, managerial and specialist roles throughout his career including communication, business coaching, business analysis, learning facilitation (adults and students), strategic planning and process facilitation, organisational development, financial planning, external & internal audits and investigations.

Werner has done work for private sector, public sector and non-profit sector entities, including JSE-listed entities, SMEs, national & provincial government and non-profit organisations.

Communication, in both English and Afrikaans, coupled with well-developed interpersonal skills, are laced throughout Werner's career. As a creative writer he has produced magazine-featured fiction, award-nominated poetry, original music, short stories and plays. He launched his debut music album at the 2018 National Arts Festival Fringe and the 2018 Free State Arts Festival Vryng.
